Subject: Re: Settlement Agreement

Dear Paula:

As Charity's attorney, I have now had the time to fully and properly evaluate her case after Judge Davis' decision to allow her to partly amend her complaint. On the basis on my review, I have advised my client that she should not go ahead with the agreement at this time, because the settlement is not fair and not in her best interest, and she has accepted my advice. In view of this, we are not prepared to settle at this time for

We regret the inconvenience this may cause you, but as her counsel I believe that I am obligated to do this.

Sincerely,

Stephen Christopher Swift
